

1818
JOHN CROSSMAN
No life in tombs long have been,
And much affliction have I seen,
Till Christ by death did for me give
And fully set me down the tree.