

The Gravestone Inscriptions
at St Mary's Church,
Almondsbury

The following records were mostly compiled in the period 1976 to 1979 and the final section from No. 70 to 100 in area 8 was completed in 2011. By 2011, many of the earlier recorded inscriptions had been lost.

The notes included in italics are taken from

- a) The Gloucestershire Collection by Ralph Bigland 1773-1775.
- b) The Almondsbury History Society Record cards which were compiled from various church and other records.

Farwel my dear and loving wife
 My children and my friends
 My fate seem'd hard when sudden death
 Did snatch away my Vitol Breath
 My time was short, my minutes few
 To do the work that all must do
 But soon I left that time behind
 And now the sweetest comfort find.

40

Her lies a son below'd most dear
 By all his friends whilst he loved here.
 But now left them all behind to mourn
 But why should they lament for me
 Since I shall ever happy be.
